

WHISTLEBLOWER RETALIATION TIMELINE

Largo Laboratory - Kaiser Permanente

Case Summary:

This document presents chronological evidence of retaliation against Ugochi L. Ndubuisi for protected whistleblowing activity regarding systemic performance issues affecting patient safety at Largo Laboratory.

Key Pattern:

- July 14: Director orders investigation
- September 29: Analysis provided and acknowledged
- October 3: Same analysis shared with staff (protected activity)
- October 3: Four censorship demands in 8 hours
- October 8: Final Written Warning (first discipline in 9 months)

Maryland OSHA Deadline: November 7, 2025

Document Generated: October 14, 2025

JULY 14, 2025 - INVESTIGATION ORDERED

Director Nathaniel Burmeister orders investigation into second shift performance. Metrics shared: 57%, 70%, 75%, 66% performance rates.

SEPTEMBER 29, 2025 - ANALYSIS PROVIDED

Ugochi provides comprehensive analysis: 'Culture issue runs deeper than individual performance.'
References Level 3 Trauma hospital requirements. Director acknowledges: 'I see the issue with staffing.'

OCTOBER 3, 2025 - WHISTLEBLOWING ACTIVITY

8:21 AM: Ugochi shares analysis with staff, including 41.23% failure rate data. This is the same analysis previously provided to and acknowledged by director. Sharing workplace safety concerns with coworkers is protected activity.

OCTOBER 3, 2025 - CENSORSHIP DIRECTIVES

8:35 AM: 'Your messages are bordering on inappropriate'

8:50 AM: 'I am asking that you delete the post'

12:19 PM: 'This is a directive. Remove this message'

4:30 PM: Fourth deletion directive

Four censorship demands in 8 hours for sharing workplace safety concerns.

OCTOBER 8, 2025 - RETALIATORY DISCIPLINE

Final Written Warning issued - first disciplinary action in 9 months of employment. Discipline occurs just 5 days after protected whistleblowing activity. The timing and severity demonstrate clear retaliation.

LEGAL SIGNIFICANCE

This evidence demonstrates clear retaliation under Maryland whistleblower protection laws:

- 1. Protected Activity: Reporting workplace safety concerns affecting patient care
- 2. Adverse Action: Final Written Warning (severe discipline)
- 3. Causal Connection: 5 days between whistleblowing and discipline
- 4. Pretext: Same analysis praised by director, punished when shared with staff
- 5. Pattern: Four censorship attempts before formal discipline

Maryland OSHA Filing Deadline: November 7, 2025

Case Type: Whistleblower Retaliation

Protected Activity: Reporting workplace safety concerns
